

HOUSEHOLD EMPLOYEES 2024 TAX RETURN

If you paid a household employee $2,700 or more in 2024, the social security and federal unemployment taxes should be computed on a Schedule H attached to your 2024 Form 1040. The tax will be added to your income tax liability. Even though the tax will not be due until April 15, 2025, a Form W-2 is required to be provided to the household employee by January 31, 2025. Please provide this form to us as soon as possible if you need assistance complying with these requirements. If you are required to report earnings of household employees, please complete the following:
